1.4.91
a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant
Theodore Cottingham, February 21, 2006 leaving Nordaggio's www.unc.bz

1. Who can see the hand of My Lord in My Lord, and who can know My Lord as Lord and Savior, and who can be the savior of My Lords coming, and refreshing, and surrendering to those who He brings truth and love, mercy and grace, and restores Zion?

2. Yea see/hear/become/feel Me in these words of love true and real; and who can be reality to unreality so unreality can become reality'd?

3. I love you and I give you Me; and I thank you for turning on, flipping on, pushing the buttons to record Me to My Mine, so that My Mine will develop and know Me, and know My Mind, and truth receive and record; and yea recording Me, being Me, speaking My word, being My word to many afar; and savior'ing become/do. I love you.

4. Nothing is the same. Nothing will remain the same. Nothing. Nothing, yea will be unaffected in that which I do now, that which I am revealing; that which you recording are, yea day after day, night after night; and in My hand are, My side.

5. Yes, you are Me; and this is your message of royalty to royalty, that they royalty are; and yea birthing forth, bringing forth I Am, and I have much strength; My right arm is not shortened, neither is My ear heavy, or My eye dim; for I move and I move in power, and grace, and glory; and I move now, and the world will watch Me move in My beloved; yea those who seek Me, seek Me, who seek My face, who know Me as My voice and love My appearing, yea in their temple, in the surrendered of the surrendered.

6. I love you and I give you Me.

7. All things change. Take time, not. I am time and all is new in Me. And I am thine, O Lord, and I have heard thy voice, and it told thy love to Me. And your quiver is full now of arrows, not; not of wood, not of stone; but yea of My making, My doing, and going forth, yea into all the nations of afar, of afar passed/a farthest.

8. I love you and all things are new in Me/you/you/Me. Our Oneship makes new. Yea, in many universes see, galactic or galacticity-at-thought, yea I am, and how far is a thought, and how much space taken, how quickly there and accomplished?

9. I love you and I give you Me.

10. All things new unto thee/you, yea my hand, my lover, my being, yea Zion singing soon My songs. I love you.

11. Thou has My reproach none, yea for all is new, and yea in Me all is; and I thank you for every word, every yoke broken, yea in the mighty that I send you to now; and mighty are speaking My words of glory and grace.

12. I give you Me, My Friend. You are Me. We are One.